

University of Central Lancashire supporting Lancashire and Cumbrian businesses.

Eco-I

North
West

NORTHERN
POWERHOUSE 2015
12M Government

Eco-I North West: Supporting England's North West businesses innovate to deliver low carbon solutions in all sectors.

Eco-I NW supports north west organisations innovate to secure a prosperous and low carbon future. This £14m project delivered by 6 of the region's leading universities follows 8 years of award-winning R&D activities. Eco-I NW opens up huge regional resource to businesses, facilitating resilience, innovation, collaboration and the development of new low carbon products, processes and services.

Providing business support to SME'S throughout Lancashire and Cumbria, designing and running research and innovation projects to lower Carbon Impact.

- Internships -140 Hours funded programme of support, with an appropriate student matched to your business need supported by an academic team.
- Innovation projects -A 3 month collaborative innovation project with an academic specialist, working across all aspects of your business to reduce your carbon footprint.
- MSc - A dedicated full time researcher working on your project at Masters level for 12 months, supported by a team of academics.
- Innovation Workshops subject related and access to partner support.

Lancaster
University

University of CUMBRIA

University of Central Lancashire
UCLan

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

LIVERPOOL
JOHN MOORES
UNIVERSITY

Manchester
Metropolitan University

We work across a wide range of business sectors, research disciplines and project themes. Our key themes are:

Energy

Water

Natural Capital

Food

Resource Efficiency

Waste

Air Quality

Get in touch to discuss your project today!

Alison Holden, Business Engagement Officer T: 01772 894324 E: Aholden11@uclan.ac.uk
 W : www.uclan.ac.uk/research/activity/eco-i-north-west-research-and-development-to-support-a-green-recovery

This programme is part-funded for European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) eligible companies. Visit our website for eligibility details.

